第二部分：克漏字：(單選；20%，每題2分)。[本大題於答案卡作答]

Napoleon declared, "Victory belongs to the most persevering." 26 careful study, we find perseverance depends upon three things—purpose, will, and enthusiasm. One who has a purpose is always 27 their forces. By the will, the hope and the plan are 28 from evaporating into dreams. Enthusiasm keeps the interest up, and makes the obstacles seem small.

Life is, in a 29, a battle. The man who thinks to get on by mere smartness and by idling meets failure at last. Perseverance is the master impulse of the 30 souls, and holds the key to those treasure-houses of knowledge 31 the world has drawn its wealth both of wisdom and of moral worth.

Great people never wait for opportunities; they make them. They seize upon whatever is 32, work out their problem, and master the situation, the greatest thing a person can do in this world is to make the most 33 out of the stuff that has been given to them. This is success and there is no other.

One of the important lessons of life is to learn how to get victory out of defeat. It takes courage and stamina, when mortified by humiliating disaster, to seek in the 34 the elements of future conquest. We cannot measure a person by their failures. We must know what use they make of them. The person who has not 35 his/her way upward and does not bear the scar of desperate conflict does not know the highest meaning of success.
